

Grosvenor Sustainability Awards 2023

Competition Privacy Notice

The Promotor collects and processes the following information for the purposes of this competition:

- Personal information will be requested from competition winners to the extent necessary to award the prize (such as name and contact details).
- Details of 500-word entry, which may be used for promotion through Grosvenor communication channels.

The Promotor may store this information within its IT systems (which may be provided by third party services providers on Promotor's behalf). Where such IT systems are located outside of the United Kingdom, Promotor has in place adequate safeguards as required by applicable data protection law.

This data processing is necessary for the performance of the competition terms and will be retained for the duration of the competition and for a reasonable period afterwards as necessary to demonstrate the competition was carried out properly (and meet our legal obligations).

The Promotor may be required to share their name and county to comply with its prize promotion legal obligations, if requested to do so. The prize winner's name will be made available to third parties on reasonable request. The Promoter may share personal information with other third parties in order to administer the competition and will require such personal data is processed by those third parties in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

You may have rights under the UK GDPR, Data Protection Act 2018 and other applicable data protection laws, for example to require us to provide a copy, correct or delete your personal information. For more details on these rights, or to complain about our handling of your personal information, visit www.ico.org.uk.

If you have any questions, comments or requests regarding this privacy policy, you can contact the Promotor at: dataprotectionGGL@grosvenor.com